Description:

Are you passionate about empowering Canadians to be informed and growing a united movement? Are you a wordsmith who gets a kick out of crafting engaging stories? If you answered yes to these questions, we might just have the perfect opportunity for you!

At Freedom Rising, we facilitate the collaboration of leaders and organizations across Canada who are working towards a free and democratic society that upholds the inalienable rights of the individual. Our values are grounded in integrity, respect, informed choice, personal responsibility, and peaceful non-compliance. We are a close-knit team dedicated to making a difference in the lives of Canadians. Our newsletter is part of our strategic communication plan and aims to:

1. Recap events, initiatives, and information shared on the weekly leader's call.
2. Engage Canadians with relevant and timely information to support our growth strategy.
3. Inspire actions that protect and uphold our rights and freedoms.

The Freedom Rising newsletter is a treasure trove of wisdom gleaned from some of the most influential minds in the country, and we're on the lookout for a talented Newsletter Editor and Writer to join our team.

This is a role for someone who loves to weave words together to capture attention, spark curiosity, and inspire action. As our Newsletter Editor and Writer, you'll wear many hats – you'll be a storyteller, a strategist, and an editor.

What You'll Do:

- Create Captivating Content: You'll get to dive headfirst into the world of the work that is taking place across the country, hear from leading experts and transform complex ideas into compelling narratives that resonate with our readers.
- Lead Newsletter Production: You'll be the mastermind behind our weekly newsletters, overseeing everything from content planning to drafting.
- Shape Content Strategy: You'll work alongside our team to plot the course for our content journey, setting goals and defining success metrics that align with our broader objectives.
- Engage Our Audience: You'll have the chance to connect with our community, understanding their needs and interests to ensure we deliver content that not only informs but also engages and provides real value.

- Collaborate and Innovate: You'll collaborate with our team and contribute to a creative, supportive environment, where everyone's ideas are heard and valued.

What We're Looking For:

- Experience: You have a track record in content creation, editing, and newsletter production.
- Communication Skills: You have a way with words and can turn complex ideas into clear, engaging content.
- Attention to Detail: You have an eagle eye for typos and grammatical errors, ensuring our content is always polished and professional.
- Time Management: You're a pro at juggling multiple tasks and deadlines without breaking a sweat.
- Team Spirit: You thrive in a collaborative environment and are always ready to lend a hand or share an idea.
- Adaptability: You're flexible and can easily adapt to changing content needs and priorities.
- Attitude: You're positive, ambitious, and driven by a desire to create high-quality content that our readers will love.

So, are you ready to take on an exciting new role where your work will make an impact on thousands of lives every week? If so, we'd love to hear from you!
