

THE FREEDOM PLEDGE

Before my Creator, my family and my community, I declare:

I will rise up, speak up and disobey harmful and tyrannical orders, whether they come from a domestic or foreign entity.

I will stand in my power and authority and reclaim my innate rights and what has been unlawfully and immorally taken from me, my family and my community.

I will resist any attempt, by government or otherwise, to divide people or communities from each other, or to subjugate any people to discrimination or harassment based on ethnicity, faith, bodily autonomy, or freedom of choice.

If the enemies of freedom come for anyone's children, my neighbours, my community, or my nation, I will resist.

I will never surrender my rights, nor those of my children and community.
